

Chamber to Welcome Two New Plants

Two of Torrance's new "blue-chip" industrial firms, R. C. Mahon Co. and Kentile Inc., will be honored at the March breakfast meeting of the Torrance Chamber of Commerce, it was announced yesterday by co-chairman Fred Brunner and Dr. John L. Bourne. The meeting will be held at the Masonic Lodge, 2326 Cabrillo, on Tuesday, March 29, starting at 7:20 a.m. Honored guests from both companies will be present to give a brief resume of their operation and plans for the future. The R. C. Mahon Co., now located at 2303 Jefferson St., will be in new quarters soon, and manufacturing steel fabrication and metal roof and deck siding.

Kentile, Inc., under construction at 2929 California St., produces Kentile vinyl asbestos, asphalt tile, cork crystallite, and rubber tile, and ken-cove vinyl wall base. Operation will start late in 1960. With Torrance's industry booming to new heights, these two fine companies will much to the future of our community, Dr. Bourne, and Brunner said.
